

Class Notes

1948

The Class of 1948 celebrate their 60th reunion.

(l-r) Front row: Ellen Thurber Stites, Malcolm Walton Kelly, Carita Ackerly Warner and Anne Skaggs Embry. Second row: Edith Fitzhugh Camp, Barbara Cutchins Reed and Frances Newman Alden. Third row: Marianna Brown Barber, Barbara Brown Hardy and Edith Bell Lyon. Fourth row: Vida Beard Ruppe and Caroline Dabney Standley.

1966

Julie Grantham Schnetke regrets to inform the LCS community of the passing of her sister, Elizabeth Grantham '72, on February 26, 2008. A graveside service, under the direction of Pearson Brothers, will be conducted at Cave Hill Cemetery on July 10, 2008.

1967

Collegiate alumni gathered over Memorial Day at the home of Ellen Miller Timmons '60. Attendees were: Jill Davenport '62, Gretchen Rounsavall Clark '67, Adelaide

Miller Rowe '67, Ellen Miller Timmons '60, Kate Vogt Talamini '67 and Ward Hillerich Tabler '67.

1968

Sara Allen Moody writes, "I still live in Birmingham, AL with my husband of 33 years, Tom Moody. I am currently involved with helping Tom, a local urologist, raise awareness for prostate cancer and the importance of early detection. I also volunteer for Better Basics, a program which helps children in underprivileged areas with reading. I enjoy going to the beach, traveling with my husband, and spending time with my three precious grandchildren—Maggie (10), Allen (3), and Lilly (3). I try to get to Louisville as often as possible to visit my mom, Frances Allen, who still lives there. I have enjoyed watching my niece, Rebecca Allen '09, go through Collegiate.

Peggy Trawick writes, "I am a professor of anthropology at a New Zealand University. I have two sons, ages 33 and 26. They both are software engineers for Google and I love them dearly. My brother Jack lives on Hilliard Ave., within easy walking distance of Collegiate."

1989

Patrick Allegra writes, "On February 27, we welcomed our second child, Beckett Holden Allegra, into our lives. Our other son, Jackson, is enjoying his new role as the big brother."

1990

Margaret Sharp Hill writes, "Mal and I were married April 28, 2007. We had a small wedding in Savannah followed by an oyster roast on the water. We are expecting a little girl in May. We live in Atlanta but also spend quite a bit of time in Savannah and welcome visitors anytime!"

1992

Breck Beard Peabody writes, "We are pleased to announce the arrival of Lainey Kathleen Peabody, born October 26, 2007. She is a handful for her big brother Ryan who is now 3."

1993

Allison McLeish writes, "I've accepted an assistant professor position in the Psychology Department at the University of Cincinnati. I just bought my first house and will be moving up there this summer. I'm excited to finally have my first "real" job and to be moving so close to Louisville."

Jessica Kron Spears writes, "My husband and I are living in Louisville with our two precious little girls, Mary Mason (4 1/2) and Leighton (1 1/2). It should be an interesting summer as Mary Mason has insisted on joining the swim team despite her inability to swim the width of the pool (let alone the length). We are looking forward to some lazy days at the pool and a few weeks at the beach."

1994

Melissa Stone Bahe writes, "John and I welcomed our second child, Miles Edwards, on November 5, 2007. He joins his 2-year-old brother, Alex."

Deborah Topcik has been honored by The Arizona Cystic Fibrosis Association as one of 20 of Arizona's Finest for her community and business activities. She accomplished much in Louisville, and is beginning to be active in her new town.

1995

Barret Cooke Coulter writes, "Elizabeth Potter Madin, Jodie Bass, Ellie Schilling, Marshall Stopher Kiker, Jenny Morse and Sara McCall and Elizabeth Cooke '98 all trekked out to Carmel Valley, CA for my October 2007 wedding to Tim Coulter."

Caroline Nixon McMillen writes, "On May 17, I married Bryan McMillen with a honeymoon in Thailand. We are currently living in Locust Valley, New York. I am working as a cardiac critical care nurse at Winthrop University Hospital and enjoy living in New York. If anyone is ever in the area please let us know. We love visitors!"

1996

Ian Shapira was recently awarded a Pulitzer Prize, sharing the honors with members of the Washington Post staff. The Post was awarded the prize for the in-depth and comprehensive coverage of the Virginia Tech shootings.

1997

Amanda Dolin Hipo writes, "My husband Richard Hipo and I gave birth to a beautiful baby girl on September 25, 2007. She weighed in at 7 pounds 10 ounces and was 19.5 inches long."

Lawrence Williams writes, "I'm off to medical school at the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences in Bethesda, MD this fall, and Sarah and I will be moving in a month from Annapolis to DC. Looking forward to continuing to serve our country and pursue my goal of becoming a physician."

1998

Sarah Davis Allen writes, "I am so excited to announce the birth of my first child Davis Burgess Allen. My husband, James, and I welcomed our new son into the world on October 30, 2007. His website can be found at www.davisburgess.com."

1999

Billy Minor writes, "I am currently deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. I will be back in the states some time after August where I will return to the AF Academy to be the assistant soccer coach for the men's Division I Program. My wife, Deanna, and I celebrated our third year of marriage this year (she was in Iraq and I was in South West Asia). If anyone wants to come out skiing in Colorado, let me know so we can meet up. Drop me a line at william.minor@auab.centaf.af.mil. I would love to catch up."

Tadd Roberts writes, "I graduated from medical school in May of 2008 and will begin Emergency Medicine Residency at University of Louisville in July. I am also working towards SCUBA Dive Control Specialist certification."

2000

Molly Mitchell recently announced her MFA exhibition "Ariella Affalo and Prredslava" at the California College of the Arts.

Jared Rouben has completed culinary school, obtained a business degree and traveled to Germany to learn about brewing and is now a 'brew master' in Chicago.

Kaywan Ghazi is beginning his MBA at Miami of Ohio and will graduate in 2009.

McCauley Williams writes, "I moved to Atlanta, Georgia in February of 2008 to start a job with Brown-Forman. As the Market Brand Manager for Jack Daniel's for the state of Georgia. I get to travel all around the state, promoting and selling a wonderful product. Life is good!"

2001

Joanna Gohmann is teaching in New Orleans and has received a fellowship to North Carolina because of the quality of her writing and is pursuing art.

Lindsay Alberts completed her Master's Degree in Art History at University College London, focusing on the domestic frescos and published writings of Giorgio Vasari. She is currently working for the English National Opera and lives in South London.

2002

Marcie Jackson married Jon Graham on December 29, 2007. Both teach English at Trimble County High School. This year Marcie took over Jon's position as director of both the fall play and the spring musical. They welcome visitors to their home in Bedford, KY. Class of 2002 wedding attendees included: Sam Adams, Sloan Bradford, Joanna Gohmann, Chelsea Newhall, Peyton Luckett, Elizabeth Lovett, Ben Fitzpatrick, Emily Arensman, Nadiya Grabova, Julia Richardson, Lindsay Alberts, and Shira Goldstein.

2003

Blair Roberts writes, "I will be starting the PhD program in Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at Princeton University in September."

Martin Schindler recently took advantage of Collegiate's Alumni Job Program and earned a job with National City Bank. He writes, "I found out about the position from the online LCS Alumni newsletter. I'm in the Retail Development Program (RDP). It is a 2-year job agreement where you learn all different operations of the bank with the goal of being a branch manager at the end of the two years."

2004

Samuel Fitzpatrick writes, "Having graduated a semester early (Fall '07) from the George Washington University in Washington, D.C., I will be matriculating to The Louis D. Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville this coming fall."

Sarah Harreld writes, "I graduated from Miami University in May 2008 and have accepted a job at the accounting firm Beers & Cutler in Tyson's Corner, VA. I plan to move to the Arlington, VA area in August. I will travel to Italy and Greece in May, work at a ranch in Colorado in June, and I will spend the rest of the summer studying for the CPA exam."

Paul Herrington writes, "I was recently awarded the Wait Fellowship in Theology and Ministry. It is a three-year full ride with a living stipend. There were two awarded this year. The degree I am seeking is a Master's of Divinity en route to a PhD in Philosophy. The Fellowship is named after the founders of the University, Samuel and Sarah Wait, and is the most competitive awarded by the Divinity School."

2005

Maggie Galloway along with her rowing teammates has participated in REthink Wisconsin—students for reducing, reusing and recycling. REthink is a coalition that works to educate the public about the benefits of reducing, reusing and recycling waste.

2006

Betsy Huggins recently played the leading role of Iphegenia in Beloit College's production of "Iphegenia and Other Daughters." A sophomore, double majoring in acting and political science, her other roles have included Alice in "Closer," Lynn in "Red Herring," and Link in "Tattoo." This spring she played the starring role of Shen Te in "The Good Woman of Setzuan."

Elizabeth Rue writes, "Things have been going well this year at school and I have had a lot of fun playing lacrosse. We even made it to playoffs but unfortunately lost in the semi-finals, still we had a lot of fun. The spring is amazing here at Ohio University."

Julian Snow was recently named the Sports Editor of the "Emory Wheel." An avid golfer, and an experienced sports writer, Julian combined his interests at Emory and has risen in the ranks of the college paper.

Matthew Thurman writes, "I am currently learning introductory Russian, an intensive, quick-paced class, until the end of June. The day after it ends, I am heading off to Italy for six weeks to finish my Italian minor. Finally, I will return to Montreal after having spent a week in Paris visiting friends."

Gordon Johnson recently had an article published in a tech magazine "Hakin9," that is translated into seven languages for Internet Technology. Gordon was the only non-professional in the magazine and was chosen for the cover. He is doing well at Indiana University, maintaining over a 3.0 GPA and attempting to add Internet security to his repertoire.

Claire Burgess earned All-American honors at the 2008 American Moot Court Association National Championship. In the upcoming school year, she will be a junior at The College of Wooster.

2007

Candace Brown's six years as a violin student in the West Louisville Talent Education Center's (WESTEC) after-school music program propelled her to Italy this past May to perform in the Smith College Symphony Orchestra.

2008

Claire Adams writes, "I will be attending Tisch School of the Arts inside New York University in the fall."

Surriya Ahmad writes, "I will be attending Emory University in the fall. This summer, I plan to spend my time volunteering at hospitals and traveling to London and France with my family."

Laura Bowling writes, "I will be attending Vanderbilt University. This summer I am traveling to California to visit my brother. I will also be working as a nanny."

Ellen Bruenderman writes, "I am going to swim and watch movies all summer. I will attend Emory University in the fall."

Jordan Taylor Buchanan writes, "I will be attending DePauw University in the fall. This summer I plan to spend lots of time with my family and friends."

CLASS NOTES CONTINUED

Molly Burke writes, "I will be attending Centre College in the fall and will be swimming there. This summer I am coaching swimming at the Louisville Country Club."

Allie Capes writes, "I'm planning on attending Rhodes College next fall. This summer I plan on getting in shape for field hockey season and going to the pool with friends."

Noah Carl writes, "I will be attending Miami University."

Ayana Churn writes, "I will be attending Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia in the fall of 2008. My plans for the summer consist of attending pre-college, trying out for the Ebony Fire Majorette dance team and living in a new world."

Chase Davis writes, "I will be attending Centre College next fall. This summer I plan on hanging out with my friends, racing and working."

Kellie Doligale writes, "I'll miss Collegiate because even though I tried to rebel from it, I feel like I had a family there. I am going to attend University of Kentucky in the fall, so it'll be a big change but I can't wait! It hasn't quite hit me yet that I'm a Collegiate alum!"

Luke Elias writes, "I will be attending John Carroll University where I will be playing baseball. My plans for the summer include baseball, work and hanging out with friends."

Micah Gardner writes, "I will be attending Murray State University in the fall."

Kelsey Goldman writes, "I'm attending Goucher College in the fall. I'm spending the summer here in Louisville, just enjoying my last few months before I move on to college."

Caroline Goldstein writes, "I will be attending Amherst College in the fall. This summer I will be traveling, spending time with family and friends, and getting ready for college."

Emori Grossman writes, "I am attending Miami University next year. This summer I will be spending time with family and friends and traveling to the beach. I am looking forward to visiting Collegiate as an alum!"

Jennifer Harlan writes, "This summer, I plan to work and travel before attending Brown University in the fall."

Krystalyn Heaston writes, "I will be attending Bellarmine University in the fall and will be studying Nursing. This summer I will be taking a family vacation and spending time with friends."

William Hornaday writes, "I will be attending Rhodes College next year. Over the summer I plan on staying in shape and hanging out with friends."

Ali Judah writes, "I will be attending Centre College in the fall. This summer I will be going to competitive saddlebred horse shows around the country and hanging out with friends and family."

Will Keyer writes, "I will be attending Centre College in the fall and plan on working this summer."

Danny Kunau writes, "I will be attending Vanderbilt University next fall."

Brandon Lowen writes, "I'll be attending Wittenberg University. This summer I will be working, working out and playing basketball and baseball to prepare myself for playing college sports."

Rashad Masri writes, "I will be attending the University of Chicago in the fall where I will be playing soccer."

Whitten Montgomery writes, "Next fall, I will be attending Kenyon College. This summer, I will be spending my time at home in Louisville. I really loved my time at Collegiate and I am nervous about college."

Cameron Norris writes, "I am going to college to play baseball and also major in Communications and minor in Political Science."

Maggie Patterson writes, "This summer I will be getting a job to make some extra money. Then I will be attending Murray State in the fall with my roommate Micah Gardner."

Brooke Perellis writes, "This fall I will be attending Miami of Ohio at Oxford. My plans for the summer include relaxing and spending time with my friends and family."

Liz Ratliff writes, "I will be attending Rollins College in the fall and will be playing Lacrosse there."

Allison Rollins writes, "This fall I will be attending Saint Louis University in Madrid, Spain. I am really sad about leaving my friends, but at the same time, so incredibly excited for the future!"

Sara Sanders writes, "I am going to Rhodes College in Memphis. This summer I will be going to Mexico and Spain, and I will be playing lots of field hockey."

Allison Schaffer writes, "I am going to China this summer, then I will be attending Northwestern University in the fall."

Jillian Schaffer writes, "In the fall of 2008, I will be attending Belmont University and majoring in Theatre with a focus on acting, along with a major in Music Business."

Elizabeth Stege writes, "I will be attending Bates College next fall in Maine. I am excited to join the Alumni Association because I love Collegiate!"

Mark Talis writes, "I'm going to the University of Louisville and plan to major in Biology."

Bennie Thurman writes, "I plan on attending George Washington University for the next four years of pre-law and this summer I plan to do an internship with a local district court judge in order to get a better feel of the court atmosphere."

Jessica Tingle writes, "This summer I will be volunteering with a group doing wildlife research in the Peruvian Amazon. I am going to Cornell University to study engineering in the fall."

Anouk Westerveld writes, "I'll be going back to the Netherlands in June. I will be attending Ryksuniversiteit Groningen in August."

Tessa White writes, "Next year I will be attending Notre Dame. This summer I will be traveling around Europe. I am going to Barcelona, Spain to see my friends graduate, then I will be spending a week in Paris with my family."

We'd like to know what's new in your life. Please share your photos and news—from career notes, to a wedding or birth announcement (that took place within the past year) or retirement updates.

Also, keep us informed of changes in your address and phone number so that Collegiate can continue to share the news with you!

Send updates to:

Ashley McIntyre, Alumni Coordinator,
Louisville Collegiate School,
2427 Glenmary Avenue, Louisville, KY 40204 or alumni@loucol.com.

Winter Bulletin
Deadline: October 15, 2008